About the University Church

For over 800 years, Great St Mary’s has been the University Church at the heart of Cambridge. We are an open and inclusive community, and we encourage all who come to explore the Christian faith — and to discover what difference faith makes. We are open every day to welcome visitors from Cambridge and around the world looking to discover this historic house of prayer.

There are worship services Sunday through Friday both in Great St Mary’s, and in Michaelhouse, our chapel, café, and art & performance space on Trinity Street. Contact information for our clergy team is on the back of this Term Card, and the most up-to-date information about services, concerts, and special events can be found at gsm.cam.ac.uk, and on Twitter and Facebook at @GreatStMarys.

Our Ministry Team

Since 1209, Great St Mary’s has been the University Church at the heart of Cambridge, providing pastoral care and spiritual formation for everyone at the University of Cambridge. We are an open and inclusive community, and we encourage all who come to explore the Christian faith – and to discover what difference faith makes. Our doors are open every day to welcome anyone needing a time of rest, prayer or conversation.

Visit our website to find out more about the whole ministry team – from vergers to children’s ministers and more – who make the University Church such a very special place to worship, learn, and grow in faith. And do stop by and visit: we’re open every day!

Music at the University Church

Great St Mary’s has a long and rich tradition of music, and is blessed to have two pipe organs, six choirs, and an orchestra. There are regular free lunchtime concerts and recitals throughout the year. Visit our website to find out about upcoming concerts and recitals. Enquiries about joining one of our choirs or giving a recital may be directed to Emma Dunn, Music Administrator, at music@gsm.cam.ac.uk.
